Why attend

Joining a board, or working closely with one, requires a different perspective from executive management. This course prepares senior executives for board-level roles: understanding directors' duties, board dynamics, strategy oversight, risk and audit responsibilities, reading board papers critically and contributing effectively in the boardroom.

Board seats increasingly go to those who can demonstrate governance understanding. You will gain the knowledge and confidence to add value at board level.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Governance briefings, board simulations, analysis of board papers, case studies of board failures and personal board-readiness planning.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain directors' legal and fiduciary duties
• Understand the roles of the board and its committees
• Oversee strategy without managing operations
• Challenge risk, audit and financial information
• Contribute effectively to board discussions
• Plan a path to board appointments

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Senior executives aspiring to board roles
• Newly appointed directors
• C-suite executives working with boards
• Company secretaries
• Senior public sector leaders

Course content

Target competencies

Participants will develop competencies in:

- Governance knowledge
- Strategic oversight
- Financial scrutiny
- Boardroom influence
- Ethical judgement
