Why attend

Good governance protects stakeholders, improves decisions and builds investor confidence. This course covers corporate governance best practice: governance codes and principles, board composition and independence, roles of chair, CEO and committees, shareholder rights, transparency and disclosure, ethics and evaluating governance effectiveness.

Governance failures have destroyed companies and careers. You will learn practical governance principles that boards and management can apply.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Governance code comparisons, case studies of governance failures, board simulations and self-assessment exercises.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain international governance principles and codes
• Describe roles of the board, chair, CEO and committees
• Assess board composition and independence
• Protect shareholder and stakeholder rights
• Improve transparency and disclosure
• Evaluate governance effectiveness
