Why attend

Corporate community investment and employee volunteering strengthen communities, engage employees and build reputation. This course covers community investment strategy, partner selection, volunteering programme design, skills-based volunteering, governance, measurement of social impact and communication.

Well-designed programmes create real community benefit and engagement, while poorly designed ones look like public relations. This course helps you build meaningful programmes.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

The course uses case studies, programme design workshops, impact measurement exercises and partner evaluation.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Develop a community investment strategy
• Select and manage community partners
• Design employee volunteering programmes
• Implement skills-based and pro bono volunteering
• Measure social and business impact
• Communicate community investment credibly

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• CSR and community investment managers
• HR and engagement professionals
• Corporate communications professionals
• Sustainability managers
• Foundation and NGO partnership managers

Course content

Target competencies
