Why attend

Staff working in some regions face risks of kidnap and extortion. This course raises awareness of kidnap and ransom risks: types of kidnapping, risk indicators, personal security behaviours, travel and residence security, what to do if taken, organisational crisis response and the role of specialist responders and insurance.

Awareness and preparation reduce the risk and improve outcomes. You will learn practical measures for individuals and organisations.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Expert briefings, scenario discussions, personal security planning and case studies.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain types and patterns of kidnapping
• Recognise risk indicators and hostile surveillance
• Apply personal security behaviours
• Secure travel and residences
• Understand survival behaviours if taken
• Prepare organisational response and support

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Staff travelling to high-risk regions
• Security managers
• HR and duty of care managers
• NGO field staff
• Executives and their teams
