Why attend

Policies, procedures, charters and terms of reference translate governance into daily practice. This course teaches how to write clear governance documents: document hierarchy, policy structure, plain language, consultation and approval, version control, communication and periodic review.

Unclear or outdated policies create confusion and compliance gaps. You will learn to write and manage documents people can follow.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Drafting workshops, document critiques, governance framework design and peer review.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Explain the hierarchy of governance documents
• Structure policies and procedures clearly
• Write in plain, precise language
• Manage consultation and approval
• Control versions and publication
• Review and retire documents systematically

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Policy and governance officers
• Compliance professionals
• HR and operations managers
• Quality managers
• Legal staff
