Why attend

Processes that cross departments often have no single owner, so problems fall between teams. This course covers process ownership and governance: defining end-to-end processes, process owner roles, process performance measures, governance forums, managing process change and maturity assessment.

Clear process ownership is essential for sustained improvement. You will learn to establish ownership and governance that works.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Process architecture workshops, role design exercises, governance simulations and case studies.

Course objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:
• Define end-to-end processes
• Establish process owner roles and responsibilities
• Set process performance measures
• Design process governance forums
• Manage process change
• Assess process maturity

Target audience

This course is suitable for:
• Process owners and managers
• Quality and excellence managers
• Business analysts
• Operations directors
• Transformation leaders

Course content
