Why attend

Regulated firms must submit accurate reports and maintain constructive relationships with supervisors. This course covers regulatory reporting processes, data governance and controls, reconciliation and validation, handling supervisory reviews and inspections, responding to information requests, remediation and building trust with regulators.

Reporting errors and poor relationships with regulators attract scrutiny and penalties. You will learn to manage both with confidence.

Professional Problems This Course Is Designed to Solve

• Difficulty translating subject knowledge into practical workplace decisions.
• Inconsistent approaches to the activities covered in the course outline.
• Lack of a structured plan for applying and reviewing new skills.

Course methodology

Process design exercises, inspection simulations, case studies and communication role plays.
